SPECIAL CHRISTMAS BREAKFAST – Macies - Ottawa Room - 7:00
SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER: The Honourable James Bartleman

Last Meeting

At our last meeting on December 1st Faye Beaufort brought us the story of her father, Cedric Titus and his struggles to secure fairness for the Black Sugar Cane farmers of Jamaica. Faye had published a book earlier this year titled “Sugar Boy” and this book about her dad was the subject of her talk. Thank you Faye, for an informative and moving story about your father’s life and his struggle to help others.

Recent & Happenings

On Tuesday, December 7th many of our club members and friends congregated at the home of Lee and Nicole James for a Pot Luck dinner and get together. There was lots of food and fellowship as the conversation flowed throughout the James’ lovely home in Manotick. Thank you so much Nicole and Lee for your hospitality.

This week

Well, it’s here. December 15th and our annual Christmas Breakfast. This is one of the opportunities where we get to showcase our club and welcome sister clubs and non Kiwanian guests. This year promises to produce our best turn out yet. Over 90 attendees have said they would be coming to share with us and to hear the Honourable James Bartleman, past Lieutenant Governor of Ontario speak on his life and experiences. This is going to be an amazing morning. We will also have the added enjoyment of being entertained by one of the Kiwanis Musical Festival’s performers.
